

THE ARTISAN

ARTFUL HARVEST

Southern Heartland Arts Inc held the Opening Night of its annual fall show

Thursday, September 15, 2022 from 5:30 til 7:30 PM.

The Show and Opening Reception is sponsored by and runs through October 7, 2022. The public is invited to visit the gallery and vote on their favorite entry Monday thru Saturday, 11-5.

We were so happy to see so many of our donors and sponsors and missed those of you unable to attend.

Linda Pflug, a Self Portrait in Pastel

The 17th annual Artful Harvest Show is dedicated to the memory of Linda L. Pflug, Linda was a founding member of Southern Heartland Art Gallery. Having run her own galleries in Naples and Punta Gorta Florida, Linda understood that budding artists were often intimidated by the possibility of rejection when entering the jury process required by most art shows. She envisioned a “Community Art Show,” which would provide a format for all artists, beginners to skilled professionals. The show would be judged, but not juried. Thus, thanks to Linda Pflug, Artful Harvest was born.

Faithfully devoted to our gallery and the mission of Southern Heartland Arts, Inc., the nonprofit umbrella organization founded in 1988, Linda acted as mentor to many artists throughout her own professional career. She was the mentor instructor at our free and open to the public “Community Paint Party,” held each and every Friday, 10-2. Through Paint Party, Linda created a “family of artists” within Southern Heartland’s larger family of artists.

Her goal, and ours, were to be “teachers of art,” for our community, offering guidance, encouragement, and venues which share the joy and passion of artistic endeavors. Linda has left a legacy for us all.

A special thank you to our Judge, Nathan Miller, who spent many hours in his analysis of every piece of art submitted to Artful Harvest. Nathan is a nationally acclaimed, award winning artist in his own right, an imaginative realist painter of both wildlife and people. His preferred medium is acrylic paint on smooth surfaces so that every detail may be visible. His work explores elements of design, symmetry, symbolism, and concepts dealing with relationship with “other spaces.” He believes artists have the capacity to help the viewer reconnect with the natural world, to appreciate the value of wildlife, and to see themselves as belonging to the ecosystem.

Nathan’s work may be seen online at www.nathanmiller.gallery.

We at Southern Heartland wish a very special thank you to UNITED BANK for its sponsorship of Artful Harvest and its continuous support of Southern Heartland Arts, Inc., Newton County’s nonprofit advocate for the Visual Arts.

Other Visual Art Center & Gallery News

Artists of Southern Heartland Gallery have been fundraising since spring to be able to replace our 40+ year old carpeting, which had become a hazard for students, guild members, and customers of the gallery. A very special thank you from all of us at SHA to those of you who helped us with our renovation project.

Operation Round Up made completion of flooring installation possible!
